

Invitation to Boston Landlords

Learn about NO-COST ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS
Saturday August Workshops in your neighborhood!

Mayor Menino's Renew Boston initiative is hosting an energy efficiency workshop for Boston landlords. Information about no-cost home energy improvements available through the federal recovery act and utility-sponsored efficiency programs will be provided, including:

- No-cost energy assessment for buildings with four or fewer apartments
- No-cost, cost-effective air sealing to reduce drafts
- Up to $3,500 for improvements in each apartment
- Zero-interest financing on qualified energy efficiency improvements
- Note: some restrictions may apply to this limited time offer

Energy Efficiency specialists and contractors will answer your questions about improving the energy performance of your properties. Renew Boston representatives will be on hand to explain new opportunities for federal funding through the City of Boston. We will work with your tenants to obtain the right rebates for your building!
